Wednesday VINITA, I. T. April 19

If the Arkansas river had half as much water in it as some of the stock of oil companies, and other companies in that city there would be no occasion for doubt about tide-water navigation.

The highest priced set of horses ever sold on the Kansas City market were sold yesterday. The car contained 10 head and the average price was $251.51 a head. The highest price paid was $275.

All the discussion anent future conditions in the Indian Territory must necessarily revolve around the single proposition of land titles. Statehood itself depends upon the removal of restrictions.

The dome of that million dollar state capital has again appeared as a mirage to delude the optics of Muskogee people. Col. Owen has passed the word around that separate statehood will give Muskogee the capital and is a bare possibility. Then the Times and Democrat print a long string of meaningless interviews showing that the business men of that city desire separate statehood. This boomlet for statehood for Indian Territory will not survive the spring winds and will hardly escape the confines of Muskogee. The rest of the country is satisfied as is also the president and both houses of congress.

The most important matter that confronts the Indian Territory and especially the Cherokee Nation, is the removal of restrictions upon the title to the lands. The Indian Territory can never hope for that degree of prosperity that is desired until lands are not only on the market but taxable. The source and foundation for the bulk of all legitimate taxation is the land. With little taxable land, the personal taxes will necessarily be very high. Town property will have an onerous burden to bear in this country until lands are taxable in general. In the early years of Oklahoma's history the taxes on city property was so high that thousands of lots in the towns were yielded up for taxes. Such a condition can easily be foreseen in the Indian Territory, and more especially in view of the fact that we are soon to have statehood with its inevitable expense. Independent statehood for the Indian Territory alone would be simply disastrous to the business interests of the country. Oklahoma has taxable lands and will bear much of the burden that otherwise would have to be met by a tax on personal property. The war cry of commercial clubs and business organizations throughout this territory should be remove the restrictions on all Indian lands save homesteads and make such land immediately taxable. When the government ceases to pay the expenses of our courts and of government generally in the Indian Territory, it will have to be paid by taxing the property of the people. The more property we have that is taxable the lower will be our own rate of taxation, and it will therefore be to the interest of the Indians themselves to make the lands taxable at the earliest possible moment. The present indications are that we will have statehood a year hence, and will thenceforth have to pay our own bills. The removal of restrictions on Indian allotments is imperative.

ON THE FUTURE OF OZONE

Chief Application Thus Far Has Been in Sterilization of Air, Water, Foods, Etc.

Although ozone is a substance which is present in the air in relatively minute quantity, yet it is possible that its future in metallurgy, both dry and wet, may be greater than would be commonly believed at present, says the Engineering and Mining Journal. It is interesting to note the many methods for generating ozone, among which may be mentioned the use of heat, the use of chemicals (barium dioxide, potassium permanganate, etc.), the action of gradual oxidation, the action of electrolysis, the influence of the silent electric discharge, and even the action of the newer radio-active substances. The chief application of ozone thus far has been in the direction of sterilization of air, water, foods, etc., in the oxidation and reduction of coloring substances, perfumes and the like; but if the eventual result should be the production of cheap ozone, who can tell what it may not do for metallurgy?

The necessity of noting the influence of the humidity in the atmosphere has been well shown by James Gayley's notable experiments on dry air blast. It certainly will be interesting to observe what the experimenter and the practitioner will do with ozone in metallurgy.

Long Distances in Florida.

We often laugh at the ignorance of Europeans as to distances in this country. We sometimes display as much ignorance ourselves when we speak of distances in Florida and Texas. A land trip from one end of Florida to the other is as long as from the great lakes to the gulf. A citizen of Maine who makes up his mind to go south may pass through Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, the District of Columbia and far into Virginia without taking any longer ride than he would take in going from one Florida town to another. And yet some people complain of the slow travel made by Florida trains. They need to take a geography with them.—Boston Globe.

Equally Sweet.

Esmeralda—Where are you and Jack going to spend your honeymoon? Gwendolen—With relatives up in Vermont. "Why, I shouldn't call that a honeymoon, at all. It will be a maplemoon."—Chicago Tribune.

Where Happiness is Found.

Don't look for true happiness in the mansions of the very rich, where high priced physicians are called in to doctor every ailment. But seek it and find it too, in the comfortable homes of the middle-classes and so called poor where Greens August Flower is always used to keep the family healthy—to cure all stomach troubles, whether indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, bilious attacks or torpid liver. Trial bottle August Flower, 5c. Big bottle, 75c. Wimer Drug Co. dw

The Medicine That Cures.

REMO, OKLA., May 11, 1905.

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine, and it is the cheapest cure any sick woman can use, as it takes as a rule, only a few bottles to effect a complete and lasting cure. I especially recommend it for uterine or ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, painful, profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to use during the gestative period, insuring easy childbirth and speedy recovery.

It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

Dr. E. Buchanan

WRITER AND LECTURER.

Dr. Mrs. Buchanan is an authority on the science of medicine and certainly appreciates the great work physicians are doing for the relief of sufferers. But this does not deter her from expressing her views in praise of Wine of Cardui.

Mrs. Buchanan's high intelligence and long and successful experience render her advice of great value. Wine of Cardui regulates menstruation, cures bearing-down pains and relieves suffering women of the pain and misery to which their sex is heir. You have the word of Dr. Buchanan and thousands of other eminent women that Wine of Cardui will completely cure you.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.
